Reeva Merchant

Junior Java Developer

407-580-1790

reeva.merchant@gmail.com

linkedin.com/in/reevamerchant

rm6718.github.io

Learned real-world development skills during an immersive, 12-week course in Back-End Engineering.

Utilized JDBC, JSPs, Spring and a variety of technologies to create over 20 projects.

Learned basic Agile project management and how to effectively collaborate.

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

Staff

MegaCon Orlando, Orlando, FL

May 2017

- Directed convention guests and assisted with all convention related questions
- Managed lines for celebrity photo booths and autograph tables
- Collaborated with various teams of volunteers to successfully carry out our assigned tasks

Volunteer, Front Desk and Discharge Coordinator

Shepherd's Hope Medical Clinic, Orlando, FL

Feb. 2016–Aug. 2016

- Processed and filed confidential incoming patient paperwork in accordance with HIPPA standards for attending physician
- Responsible for training new volunteers for Front Desk and Discharge Coordinator roles
- Promoted to preparing confidential lab, radiology, and prescription requests for patients
- Worked with physicians and patients to ensure follow-up treatment procedures were clearly communicated

Intern

Health Flights Solutions, Orlando, FL

Aug. 2016-Sep. 2016

- Edited informational brochure and website
- Assisted in hiring process by reviewing incoming Administrative Assistant resumes
- Researched potential learning management system plugins for Wordpress for the training of incoming employees

SKILLS

Java

PostgreSQL

Spring Framework

Swagger

REST APIs

Github

PROJECTS

Wishful

A bucket list web application where a user creates and mange their future goals.

An API created with Java, SQL, and Spring Framework.

Dessert Tracker

A web application that tracks the favorite desserts of your friends..

An API created with Java, SQL, and Spring Framework.

EDUCATION

Back-End Engineering, certificate
The Iron Yard, Orlando, FL

Bachelor's in Healthcare Administration
University of Central Florida
Orlando, FL, August 2013 - present